

Gary Potvin

Director, Business Resources Ontario South

A 25-year vet of the foodservice industry and the Director of Business Resources for Sysco Southern Ontario. Gary oversees an array of different individuals from Corporate chefs, Consultants, Specialists and Marketing. His leadership and passion amplifies his team to a level of professionalism and expertise that's unheard of in the industry.

He started his love for this business at a young age, where his first job was working at The Station Restaurant in Port Elgin, Ontario. He then went on to pursue his bachelor's degree in business where his mark and drive exploded across Ontario and into Canada.

Gary started his career path with Sysco over 17 years ago in sales, where he jumped up the ranks to be one of Sysco's most valued employees - he attributes a strong working mindset for getting him where he is today. One of Gary's passions is being a part of Sysco's Craft Beer Business Program in Southern Ontario. He truly sees the future, where the Craft Beer business is something that Sysco needs to be a part of. Simply put, Gary and his team helps restaurant owners every day deliver impressive solutions and results as well as overcoming all the challenges that are amongst the foodservice industry.
